
gals go on Sundays. Council said he believed in the theory of separation of state and church, and did not favor religious it was simply a matter with him of whether or not the majority of the people would be disturbed, but he would not object to the same being made religious if the majority of the mass of people would not object. The position was laid on the table for consideration at a future meeting when all the councilmen are present.

Rev. MacDonald said he would like an opportunity to canvass among the Italian people. Dr. M. H. Scanlon said as a whole the Catholic people are as strong as their protestant neighbors, and as strong as their people, and believed that if it was left to the Catholic church there would be no Sunday baseball.

Rev. MacDonald asked if there was any way to get the people to the polls for a vote. He said he would like to see it on the ballot to decide the matter by referendum. It was stated there was no way for a referendum vote. The clergy were asked if they would give a warning when the matter came up before the council again for discussion.

An ordinance authorizing the board of water commissioners to construct a sewer condition inside the line of curbing on streets where sewers are constructed was voted by the council.

William J. Nichols and Abbott Langford were appointed absoberers of damage done by dogs. Bills amounting to $250 for services rendered at forest fire were voted paid. East avenue fire, $20 Shore Road, $146.50 Cedar swamp fire, $100.00. The following bills amounting to $76.50 were voted paid for the work of exterminating the mosquito.

Milk Inspector Thomas E. Robinson reported that the milk supply had been secured during the past month. Health Officer Samuel C. Webster, M. D., reported 1 case of chicken pox, 3 of diphtheria and 4 of whooping cough. The following were reported arrests during April. Frank G. Booth offered his resignation as a police constable in the town of Westerly, which was accepted.

Fire Warden Sheffield Green was voted the sum of $200.00 for his services there as may be necessary to purchase the tools

The war veterans of John Nichols and Town South John Johnson, Jr., were appointed a committee to investigate the payment of doctor's bills for services rendered to school children. Lena T. Phillips was awarded a taxidermy license for the Oaks Inn. Victualing licenses were granted to Harriet L. Sisson and Thomas L. Fontana. The license was granted Harry Wee for the Canton restaurant provided the booths were removed from the place.

The Greene Ward chapter, B. A. R., will hold Tuesday at the Town Hall Memorial building at 3 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Webster of the West Side have returned from the south.

Miss William F. Joyce, who has been the guest of Mrs. Willis McGarth at Newton court, returned to Dover, N. J., Tuesday.

Charles W. Carroll of Bridgeport is the guest of relatives here this week.

M. L. T. of Providence was a caller here Tuesday.

Miss Helen Alexander of the West Side is visiting relatives in Worcester, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Traskery of New York are in town.

M. L. T. of the West Side is visiting Norwich friends.

The nursing instruction held Tuesday at the Wequetequock Community club called out many from here and Stonington. The members of the W. R. C. of Stonington were present. The talk was given by Miss Bridget O'Connell of the Poultry and Garden club will be at tended the man and several stitches were applied to close the wound. He was brought home Thursday by motorcuck.

F. M. Hutchinson of Rochester, N. Y., is the guest of friends here.

McC. L. Roome of Albany is here this week.

YANTIC

Alfred Brown and John Curry have joined the local automobile club, having purchased touring cars this spring.

Mrs. John Ayer is to entertain the members of the Woman's Guild at her apartment in the Manning home on Main street, to Wednesday.

The Yantic firemen's fund has been increased by $327 as a result of the bazaar held in the engine hall during the latter half of last week.

Charles Brown has purchased a new five passenger touring car.

Mrs. A. J. Bailey and daughter Natalie have returned, after a visit in New York with Mrs. Bailey's mother.

Mrs. George Smith of Meriden has been spending a day in town with her mother, Mrs. M. J. Bogue.

Miss Mildred Pendleton has returned after a week end stay in New Britain, as the guest of Fred Hewitt.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Oliver have returned to South Manchester after spending the week end with Mrs. Oliver's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hamilton.

Mrs. Charles Pendleton and Mrs. Alexander Pendleton spent Monday in Hartford.

CHAPLIN.
Mrs. Olive L. Martin, 62, widow of George Martin, died at her home Saturday, April 22. She had been ill many months from the infirmities of age and bore her illness with patience and was tenderly cared for by her three daughters. Her funeral was largely attended Thursday at the home at 2 p. m. Rev. John H. Knott conducted the service and in the course of his tribute read by request Tennyson's Crossing the Bar, also read a sympathetic letter from Rev. Walter E. Lamphear, a former pastor, who paid a high tribute of respect to Mrs. Martin. The flowers were beautiful and included, from Mrs. Walter E. Lamphear, Miss Julia L. Martin, Miss Gertrude split seats.

On General Manager H. F. Woodcock.
Yale university Boat club and Har Story, crew manager, were at the Ya quarters here Tuesday from New Hav to look over the work being done to t property.
Miss Alice Harris of Groton and a p
of friends were callers on Miss Har grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Parkins at their home in the villa
Tuesday evening.
William H. Shields, Jr., of Norwa was a dinner guest of Fred W. Smith Su day.
Mrs. George F. Dean who makes h home with Mrs. Fred Fabel and is co valancing from a long illness, was ab to call on friends in New London recen tly, accompanied by Miss Fabel her daug

Miss Ida Erickson, near Red Top Saturday afternoon. An interesting program was given and refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bragaw of N. Haven were week and guests of Mrs. El Stoddard.

Mrs. Denison Chapman of Uncas spent Saturday afternoon, with Mrs. Hester Prentice of California, a guest at home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. Charles H. Comstock.

Miss Sarah T. Latimer left Monday visit friends in Hartford.

New Haven.—Two women for police work were named by the New Haven police commission recently, subject civil service examination. They will wear uniforms.

Monday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Williams were Groomed Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. William Harris of London, were at Joseph Noyes' Sunday.
Mrs. Seth M. Williams and Miss S.
D. Wheeler attended the D. A. R. m ing of Anna Warner Bailey, on Thursday held with Mrs. Paul Hill of Westerly, when interesting reports of the Washington congress were given.
Mrs. Fred Wheeler and children
Westerly motored to Cyrus Stew
Tuesday evening.
Mrs. Noyes Palmer, Miss Mollie P er, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Williams and Grace D. Wheeler attended the c munity chorus concert in Stonin
Thursday evening.

WESTERVILLE

The Ladies' Aid society of Pawcatuck Congregational church is to meet Thursday.

The girls of St. Mary's Tierney league of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union on Lanphear, daybreak carnations; Miss Ardene Dunham and Mrs. Marguerite talk on the work done in her town and city as also did Mrs. Cora D. Stevens, of Canaan. Rev. William T. Thayer and Walter L. Woodbury, of the address, both afternoon and evening audiences. Sunday school workers of all denominations were invited to attend which called forth a large number from this district. The menu for the evening was: soup, to the county delegates (the menu following, Beef loaf, potato salad, rolls, baked beans, cake and coffee.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. F. Findlay of Mammoth, Ariz., have returned home.

Mrs. Edward E. Bradley will leave this week to spend two weeks in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Brown and family will leave for the coast in a few days until their newly purchased home on Center street is ready for occupancy.

Rev. William F. Williams is spending several weeks in the West.

At Lord's Point the work of building several cottages has started and others in the neighborhood will be erected later.

The Lena Cheslakee is able to get about with the aid of crutches.

The extremely low tide, which pre-

GALES PERKIE

Mrs. W. D. Woodward, director of the Junior branch of the league meets at class at 8 o'clock.

League evening service.

Mrs. Courtland E. Colver, leader, the topic was Growing a Character, the topic were some special readings, and a special hymn, Pray, was sung by Helen Louise Colver.

Guests: Mrs. M. J. Perkins, Mrs. Jennie G. Perkins, was pianist.

R. Irving Hurlburt with a two horn band and Nelson Parker with Walter McChesney, attended the service for clean-up day for the village Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Delphine Fitts and Mrs. Fanny McKeith members of Anna Warner Hall chapter attended a meeting of the chapter at the home of Mrs. P. Hillard in Westerly Thursday afternoon.

Miss Gladys E. Stratton of the New London chapter, attended the first lesson in chair dancing at the Country Club house Thursday evening.

Twenty were present, and piano solos were begun.

Miss Stratton will be the leader Thursday evening of this year.

tor, Edith and son Douglas Rabel.
Miss Sarah Smith, who is spending some weeks in Norwiche, was a recent guest at the home of her parents, Mr. & Mrs. Latham E. Smith at Rose Lafayette Terrace cottage, belonging to Charles H. Brown of Norwich, situated on the Village street is being improved, having the side walls shingled.
From about 100 to 150 persons are thought to have been present. There have been much improved recently.
Amos P. Gray of New London, was week end guest at the parsonage of Rev. Mr. J. W. Woodard, and sister, Rev. and
W. D. Woodard.
A vote taken at the morning service of the M. E. church Sunday, decided the mode of the services to remain on standard time. The village school opened Monday morning on standard time and trains operated from the railroad station

ROAD SOCIETY

Charles King and A. Bruckner of New York were in this vicinity Tuesday.

Rev. C. F. Eldridge of Natick came on several local families Friday.

William Harris and Charles Burdett of Old Mystic, Mr. and Mrs. A. Fletcher of Norwich and John Kane of New London were at Horace Frink's home Sunday.

Donald Wheeler and Harry Elaine returned to Euston.

The Grange held a meeting Wednesday evening.

Mr. William Brewster of New York was at Mrs. N. Stanton Gates'.

Bert Watson of Mystic was a guest of Byron Billings Saturday.

Miss Esther Billings is driving a new automobile.

Miss Prudence Pugh of Groton was

An ordinance authorizing the board of water commissioners to build sewer conduits at a cost of $2,000, $1,600 being the town's quota.

Mrs. Harry Gavitt of Wells street, is city as also did Mrs. Cora D. Stevens, of Canaan. Rev. William T. Thayer and Mrs. W. D. Woodward director of the junior branch of the league meets the

Mrs. W. D. Woodward director of the Junior branch of the league made a class at six o'clock.

The league evening service was held at the home of Mrs. Courtland E. Colver, leader, the topic was Growing a Character, there were some special readings, and a special hymn, "The Power of the Word," by Louise Colver and Matilda Klenas. Miss Jennie G. Perkins was pianist.

R. Irving Hurlbut with a two hour test of the new book, "The Power of the Word," by M. Buckingham, attended to the certificate for cleanup day for the village Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Delphine Fish and Mrs. Fanny Molthrus members of Anna Warner Hall chapter, D. A. R., attended a meeting of the chapter at the home of Mrs. W. H. Hillard in Westerly Thursday afternoon.

Miss Gladys E. Stratton of the New London county farm bureau gave the report to the annual meeting of the New Country club house Thursday evening. Twenty were present, and nine seats were begun. Miss Stratton will give the next report.

Thursday, September 10, 1925.

ROAD SOCIETY

Charles King and A. Bruckner of New Rochelle were in this vicinity Tuesday.

Rev. C. F. McDodge of Natick came on several local families Sunday.

William Harris and Charles Bard of Old Mystic, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Fisher of Norwich and John Kane of New London were at Horton's, Friday Sunday.

Donald Wheeler and Harry Blaine of Boston were in this vicinity.

The Grange held a meeting Wednesday evening.

Mrs. William Brewster of New York at Mr. N. Stanton's.

Bert Watson of Mystic was a guest Byron Billings Saturday.

Miss Elizabeth Billings is driving a new automobile.

Miss Prudence Fish of Groton was

ed a committee to investigate thymement of doctor's bills for services rendered to the patient.

Story, crew manager, were at the Yacht club here Tuesday from New Haven to look over the work being done to the property.

Miss Alice Harris of Groton and a party of friends were callers on Miss Harris grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Fairbanks at their home in the village Tuesday evening.

William H. Shields, Jr. of Norwalk was a dinner guest of Fred W. Smith Sunday.

Mrs. George F. Dean who makes her home with Mrs. Fred Fabel and is convalescing from a long illness, was called on by friends in New London recently, accompanied by Miss Fabel her daughter.

Groton Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. William Harris of London were at Joseph Noyes' Sunday. Mrs. Seth M. Williams and Miss G. Wheeler attended the D. A. R. meeting of Anna Warner. Betsy and Thursday held with Mrs. Paul Hill of Westerly, when interesting reports of the Washington congress were given. Mrs. Fred Wheeler and children Westerly motored to Cyrus Stewart Tuesday evening.
Mrs. Noyes Palmer, Miss Mollie Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Williams and Grace D. Wheeler attended the community chorus concert in Stonington Thursday evening.

little coats, caps, stockings, dresses, were removed from the place.

Phoebe Greene Ward chapter, D. A. B., joined the local automobilists, having

Alfred Brown and John Curry have

John H. Knott conducted the service and in the course of his tribute read by re-

Tuesday evening.

William H. Shields, Jr. of Norwich

and Mrs. Charles H. Comstock.

Mrs. Sarah T. Latimer left Monday to the Washington congress were given

Mrs. Fred Wheeler and children

John H. Knott conducted the service and in the course of his tribute read by request Tennessee's Crossing the Bar, also read a sympathetic letter from Rev. Walter E. Lanphear, a former pastor, who paid a high tribute of respect to Mrs. Martin. The flowers were beautiful and included, from Mrs. Walter E. Lanphear, Miss Julia L. Martin, Miss Gertrude

and Mrs. Charles H. Comstock.
Miss Sarah T. Latimer left Monday
visit friends in Hartford.

New Haven.—Two women for po work were named by the New Ha police commission recently, subject civil service examination. They will wear uniforms.

A black and white illustration of a woman holding a baby. The woman is shown in profile, facing left, with her hair styled in waves. She is wearing a dress with a floral pattern. The baby is held in her arms, looking towards the viewer. The illustration is framed by a decorative border on the right side.

東坡先生集卷之四

Kutztown, Pa.—"I wish every woman who wants children would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has done so much for me. My baby is almost a year old now and is the picture of health. She walked at eleven months and is trying to use her little tongue. She can say some words real nice. I am sending you her picture. I shall be thankful as long as I live that I found such a wonderful medicine for my troubles."—Mrs. CHARLES A. MERTZ, Kutztown, Pa.

These letters should induce others to try

LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. LYNN, MASS.

Made in Wisconsin

Portum Cereal Company
Smith Creek, Wis., U.S.A.

A FOOD

Combining the natural nutrient elements of these and grains thoroughly and scientifically baked.

ECONOMY

The Grape-Nuts are a most economical suspension of GRAPE-NUTS for the most part of a meal is sufficient for an entire meal. Most say to use if desired.

ECONOMY TWELVE CENTS

"There's a Reason"

Grape-Nuts are twice baked and the cereal is left to its own

The Grape-Nuts are thoroughly baked and have been given a crisp, golden-brown color and a crisp, golden-brown taste.

The Grape-Nuts are thoroughly baked and have been given a crisp, golden-brown color and a crisp, golden-brown taste.

CRISP! There's an irresistible appeal to eat the golden Grape-Nuts granules. SWEET! There's the wholesome, natural sweetness developed from wheat and malted barley as the result of over 20 hours careful baking. NUTRITIOUS AND SATISFYING! There are the splendid building and sustaining food qualities put in the grains by Nature and perfected by the skilled processing.

Grape-Nuts provides well-balanced nourishment in easily digestible form. It is ready to eat with cream or good milk.

Let this happy food gratify your taste and satisfy your appetite at breakfast or lunch. Especially fine for the children's evening meal.

You can secure Grape-Nuts wherever good food is sold or served.

"There's a Reason"

Made by Postum Cereal Company, Incorporated Successor to
Postum Cereal Company, Inc., Battle Creek, Michigan

Postum Cereal Company, Inc., Battle Creek, Michigan